

Sheldon Ganstrom

Focusing on expressing his love of pattern and decoration within the medium of American raku, Sheldon Ganstrom has spent over four decades exploring and developing a unique and personal palette of glaze variations and firing techniques.

His hard-edge, abstract expressionistic glaze painting, occasionally punctuated by the earthy, organic edges of the clay, invites entry into a world of pure emotion.