

Suzanne M. Kane

(575) 649-3845 suzannekane00@comcast.net Web site: www.suzannekane.com

The Chihuahua Desert amazes me; despite a harsh climate and severe drought the landscape is filled with weird and wonderful growing things. My current work is inspired by unusual seeds and structural plants that endure and survive in the Southwest. The sculptural plants I build are about resilience, persistence, toughness, durability, tenacity and adaptability.