

Mary Fischer

My work is hand built from slabs and extruded pieces of clay. Pieces are finished with slips, stains and occasionally printed images. Images are printed on wet clay using various printmaking techniques with an ink made from linseed oils and mason stains.