

Kym Owens

I am a maker of fancy porcelain pottery. My work is highly decorative with different layers of surface slip designs. Each pot is carefully and precisely executed with a mindful meditative approach to the overall design and decoration. I purposely want my pottery to feel tactile, soothing, and visually inspiring. I would like people to have a sense of wonderment and excitement each time they view my pottery... I know I still do each time I create one.