

Bob Valle

Artist Statement

My current work is inspired by my early childhood in a steel town in the Ohio Valley. The cans and jugs I create reflect the tools used in the steel mills. I use underglazes, oxides and organic compounds to create a weathered, worn steel finish on my work. Some pieces in the collection are fired in oxidation and some are wood fired.